

COURSE INFORMATION:

TITLE: C201: Christian Education and Nurture

INSTRUCTOR: Rev. David Jones

DATES: January 28, February 11, 25

LOCATION: Franklin, IN

Cost includes course expenses plus lunch for the 3 Saturday sessions

Register EARLY and SAVE!

See details on the registration form along with contact information for further inquires

RSVP by January 16 is MANDATORY

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR:

Rev. David Jones received his Master of Divinity in Christian Education with a focus in communications and media from Southern Seminary in 1990. Rev. Jones is currently serving as the Campus Minister at the ABC Ministry at Ball State. This ministry is known as The Oasis. Rev. Jones has experience in organizing Christian Ed systems in the church, as well as training and equipping volunteers. Pastor Jones has written curriculums for a variety of ministries within the church. He is very interested in learning and teaching about Christian Education in the church.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

- ☛ Explore the importance of Christian Ed in and outside church congregations
- ☛ Explore concepts and purpose of Christian Ed
- ☛ Consider the variety of contexts in which Christian Ed occurs
- ☛ Research and critique several types of curriculum
- ☛ Evaluate the Christian Ed system of each student's congregation
- ☛ Explore methods of teaching and learning
- ☛ Explore how culture influences methods of educating and the importance of the church serving the community

Providing education to the
ABC-IN/KY & ABC-GI
Regions