Class Description:

This Theology Class will enable you to define what you mean by "theology". You will engage with classmates in discussing doctrines of Christian belief and ways we communicate our faith, and respond to challenges of faith today. We will reflect on two very different books that will challenge you to know what you believe and help you to communicate why you

About the Instructor:

Rev. Bern Kiser has served in pastoral ministry since 2002. After retiring from full time ministry in January 2018 and moving to Madison, Indiana, he has been serving as the bi-vocational pastor at Lick Branch Baptist Church in Deputy, IN.

Bern has a M.A. in English Literature from North Carolina A & T State University, and has attended the University of Missouri at Columbus and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he has 72 hours towards a Ph. D. in the study of Rhetoric. He also has a Masters of Divinity from the Baptist Seminary of Kentucky. Bern has avidly studied theology for more than 45 years. For about 10 years, he taught courses in Philosophy and Literature.

He is married to Lisa Kiser, who works for the Department for Child Advocates in Madison, Indiana. Both Bern & Lisa are strong advocates of education and the promotion of the Christian faith.
