

Introduction to Christian Worship

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

This learning experience will provide students with an Introduction to Christian worship.

Class participants will explore the nature of Christian worship by examining the heritage of a variety of worship traditions and some of the contemporary issues around worship in the church today.

The class will provide an opportunity for students to reflect upon and experiment with worship design and leadership in their own ministry context.

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR :

Karen Hetrick brings to the CLI program her call and commitment to thoughtful and intentional consideration and practice of Christian worship. She has served several ABC churches in music ministry and currently serves Mt. Auburn United Methodist Church in Greenwood, Indiana, as Director of Worship and Worship Arts. Karen is a past-president of the Fellowship of American Baptist Musicians and has served as Worship Coordinator for the FABM Conference for Church Musicians. She designs and leads worship for retreats and workshops for a variety of venues, including ABW Ministries and ABC regional events.

Karen has earned a B.A. in Fine Arts from Judson College (now Judson University), A Masters in Church Music (M.A.C.M.) degree from Christian Theological Seminary, and a Doctor of Worship Studies (D.W.S.) degree from The Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies.
