

Franklin College was founded in 1834 by Baptist pioneers and maintains a voluntary association with American Baptist Churches USA. There are a number of scholarship opportunities available for students from American Baptist Churches.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- Franklin College has two endowed scholarships for American Baptist students. To be considered you must indicate on your college application that you are American Baptist and give the name of your church.
- American Baptist Home Mission Societies offers scholarships for undergraduate studies that are renewable for up to four years. Learn more under the “Education and Scholarships” tab at www.abhms.org.
- Franklin College will match scholarships from local American Baptist Churches up to $250 per semester or $500 per school year. Check with your pastor to inquire about church scholarships.
- Indiana American Baptist Women’s Ministries offers direct to student scholarships. Learn more at www.abc-indiana.org/region-ministries/american-baptist-women/.
- Christian Community Credit Union has previously had a scholarship program. As of this writing, it has temporarily stopped taking new applications, but may return. Visit their website to learn more: www.mycccu.com.

For more information, please contact Rev. Rebecca Horstman May, American Baptist Liaison Assistant at RHorstman-May@franklincollege.edu.